

19 - 20 May 2011
The ITU Seminar on
“Number Portability: Regulatory Issues and Implementation Impacts”
Chisinau, Republic of Moldova

This seminar was organized at the kind invitation of the Ministry of Information Technologies and Communication of the Republic of Moldova, the National Regulatory Agency for Electronic Communications and Information Technology of the Republic of Moldova, and in cooperation with NEUSTAR Inc.

The main aims of this seminar were to share experience and inform participants of the latest developments on the following issues:

- Fundamentals of Number Portability

- Technical and regulatory problems of NP implementation in fixed and mobile networks
- High level economics of number portability
- Operator Implementation Overview
- Next Generation NP Solutions - ENUM

The Seminar was attended by the 74 representatives from the following countries: Moldova, Kyrgyzstan, Tajikistan, Uzbekistan, Ukraine, Russia, USA, Lithuania, Romania, Kazakhstan, France.

Among the speakers of the seminar there were the ITU-T Q1/2 (Numbering) Rapporteurs, representatives from regulatory authorities, Numbering and Networks – European Communications Office,

According to the participants appreciation the seminar had a great successes

Event was sponsored by the JSC MOLDTELECOM and NEUSTAR companies.

Participants of the Seminar
« Number Portability: Regulatory Issues and Implementation Impacts »
19-20 May 2011