

ASEAN Regional Conference on Child Online Protection
25-27 February 2020
ROYAL ORCHID SHERATON HOTEL AND TOWERS
Bangkok, Thailand
AGENDA

TUESDAY 25th FEBRUARY 2020 - 8.30-7.30 (with reception) (registration 8.00-8.30)

Opening

- Voices of young people – an online life
- Welcome remarks
- Call to Action

Setting the scene: the online world for children in South East Asia

- Children and young people's use of the internet and social media in the region
- Platforms of risk – surface web, deep web and dark web / social media, gaming, dark social
- Current and emerging online risks for children in the digital world in South East Asia – findings from global and regional research
  - o Adult to child risks – grooming, live streaming, sextortion, production and distribution of child sexual abuse materials
  - o Peer to peer risks – cyber bullying, revenge pornography and self-generated sexual abuse materials

Thematic sessions – current and emerging solutions and challenges for prevention and response

- Overview of regional frameworks for protection and action
- Online-offline nexus for risks, prevention and response
- Evolving opportunities for the social welfare sector, private sector/industry, telecommunications sector, and justice sector to combat child online sexual abuse and exploitation at country and regional levels and for victim identification, support and recovery

Reception and exhibition displaying the latest initiatives and technology for prevention and response

WEDNESDAY 26th FEBRUARY 2020 - 8.30-5.00 (arrival 8.00-8.30)

Thematic sessions – current and emerging solutions and challenges for prevention and response

- Protecting children through tech solutions
- Safety and privacy – a balancing act?
- Role and effectiveness of digital literacy and education for child online protection
- Protecting children through tracking financial flows
- The dark net and child online protection
- Opportunities for cross regional and inter-regional collaboration for prevention and response

THURSDAY 27th FEBRUARY 2020 - 8.30-5.00 (arrival 8.00-8.30)

Deep dive sessions – the way forward

- Translating regional frameworks into action (including the Declaration on the Prohibition of All Forms of Online Abuse and Exploitation in ASEAN) within sectors, cross sectorally, at country level and across the region, and with the private sector
- Artificial Intelligence – opportunities and risks for child rights and child protection
- The future of the internet for children and child online protection

