

Telecommunication Standardization Bureau

Organizational Structure

TSB Structure

Mandate of the Telecommunication Standardization Policy Department (TSP)

TSP is responsible for the policy plans related to the ITU-T mission and the maintenance of its pre-eminent position in the global standardization arena. Its areas of activity include:

- Promotion, communication and membership relations
- ITU-T Workshops
- Technology Watch
- WTSA Programme implementation
- Bridging the Standardization Gap
- IPv6
- Conformity and Interoperability
- Accessibility

Structure of the Telecommunication Standardization Policy Department (TSP)

Workshops and Promotion
Division

WTSA Division

Policy and Technology
Watch Division

Mandate of the Study Groups Department (SG)

SG is responsible for facilitating, managing and supporting the work of the ITU-T study groups in the development of global telecommunication standards (ITU-T Recommendations). Its areas of activity include:

- Running the secretariats for the Sector's study groups, focus groups and other ad-hoc groups
- Maintaining close relations with the ITU Radiocommunication and Telecommunication Development Sectors and taking part in their work
- Cooperation with other global standards organizations such as ISO and IEC

Structure of the Study Groups Department

Study Groups

OBNA

Mandate of the Operations and Planning Department (OPD)

OPD is responsible for coordinating and planning the support for the activities of the Telecommunication Standardization Sector including:

- Organization of assemblies and meetings
- Electronic Working Methods
- ITU-T databases
- Processing of ITU-T and TSB documents
- Support for the approval process for recommendations
- Technical editing and production of ITU-T publications and ISO/IEC common texts
- Administration and management support

Structure of the Operations and Planning Department (OPD)

Administration
Division

Electronic Working
Methods

ITU-T Databases

Editing and Publications

Meeting
Logistics

Documents
Control

TSB Staff

- Employees: 71 (including short-terms)
- Number of Women: 39
- Number of Men: 32
- Number of Ds: 3
- Number of Ps: 34
- Number of Gs: 34