

EWA GAWORA
DIRECTOR OF STRATEGIC MARKETING
CDMA DEVELOPMENT GROUP

Ewa Gawora is the director of strategic marketing for the CDMA Development Group (CDG) where she is responsible for overall direction of the CDG's strategic and marketing activities.

Ewa has more than 13 years of telecommunications experience working with leading wireless operators in the U.S. and Latin America on subscriber acquisition strategies, new consumer and business product introductions and handset management.

Ewa earned an MBA from the Anderson School at UCLA with concentrations in marketing and international business.