

MOLLY GAVIN

Ms. Molly Gavin serves as a Manager in International Government Affairs at QUALCOMM Incorporated in San Diego. Ms. Gavin manages QUALCOMM's developing country agenda and represents the company at the ITU in the Radiocommunications and Development Sectors. In the ITU-D Study Group 2 she holds the Rapporteur position for Question 20/2: Examination of Access Technologies for Broadband Communications. She also supports QUALCOMM's public policy agenda in Latin America including Inter-American Commission on Telecommunications (CITEL) activities.

Prior to joining QUALCOMM, Ms. Gavin worked for the Institute for Global Conflict and Cooperation, where she was responsible for preparing briefs for roundtable discussions with United States and foreign telecommunications regulators. Ms. Gavin has also worked with Motorola in its iDEN international marketing department.

Ms. Gavin graduated Summa Cum Laude from the University of Notre Dame with majors in Government and Spanish and received her Master's Degree in International Relations and Management from University of California San Diego's Graduate School for International Relations and Pacific Studies. Ms. Gavin has also been awarded fellowships from the Kellogg Foundation, the Shoepflin Foundation and the Markle Foundation for her work in promoting entrepreneurship in developing nations.

QUALCOMM Incorporated (www.qualcomm.com) is a leader in developing and delivering innovative digital wireless communications products and services based on the Company's CDMA digital technology. Headquartered in San Diego, Calif., QUALCOMM is included in the S&P 500 Index and traded on The Nasdaq Stock Market[®] under the ticker symbol QCOM.