

Ellen Lee(Li Yanbin), member of RWG and MWG of WiMAX Forum, is from Beijing office of Huawei Technologies. She is responsible for the wireless regulations research and management, which in close connection with international SDOs and Industrial Alliance in the telecom sector, including ITU and APT. Now, she is nominated as the Liaison Officer of MWG and RWG affairs for WiMAX Forum in China.

Before joining Huawei Technologies, she worked for China Academy of Telecommunication Technology (CATT) and participated in the national standard development and commercialization, with years of accumulation in the project management and strategic collaboration between the multinationals in 3G marketing, joint R&D and field trial.