

Summary bio for Hendrik Prins

Graduate from the Royal Melbourne Institute of Technology Communications Engineering 1966.

Nearly 35 years experience as professional engineer. A number of senior executive advisory and management posts in industry and Government.

Currently an independent consultant to clients in the wireless communications is with emphasis on business development and regulatory affairs. Actively involved with work of the WiMAX Forum Regulatory Working Group with focus on Asia Pacific Region.

Chairman of the BWA Working Group of the Asia Pacific Telecommunity Wireless Forum and an active participant in the work of the ITU-R particularly on IMT related matters.