

Development Forum
Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic, 25 (afternoon) - 27 November 2009

Frequency allocation and spectrum management requirements

The presentation addresses some issues related to frequency allocation and spectrum management requirements. After reviewing the role of the ITU-R, challenges and some other key aspects related to spectrum management, it then describes the ITU activities, challenges and some other major features associated to the transition from analogue to digital terrestrial broadcasting. Finally, some considerations are provided with regard to frequency allocation.