

ALBERTO ARTURO ZETINA VÉLEZ

Degree in Mechanical and Electrical Engineer specialized on Control, Communications and Electronics and Lawyer specialized on International Affairs

Since 1991, Alberto A. Zetina Vélez is actively participating and obtained many directive positions at the most important International FORA on Business Development, Standardization, Policies and Regulations on Telecommunications, such as the Inter - American Telecommunications Commission CITEL of the OAS; the North American Free Trade Agreement NAFTA, the Free Trade Agreement Mexico – European Union, the Free Trade Area of The Américas (FTAA), the Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC) on its Telecommunications sector APEC-Tel., and at the International Telecommunications Union (ITU).

Was re-elected at the ITU World Telecom Development Conference 2006 in Doha, Qatar to the following positions:

- Vice President of the ITU-D advisory Group (TDAG) for the Americas, -
- Vice President of the Working Group on Private Sector Issues of the TDAG,
- Rapporteur of the Working Group on “Migration of Wireless Systems / Networks to IMT-2000 and Beyond” of the ITU-D / SG2.

Founder and first Trilateral President of the Consultative Committee on Telecommunications for the NAFTA (CCT/NAFTA).

Since June 1st, 2009 is CEO of Sistemas Avanzados de Alerta Temprana S.A. de C.V. and CEO of SAAT Consulting S.A. de C.V.

For 25 years had different directive positions in ERICSSON Telecom S.A. de C.V., in the areas of Marketing, Sales, Manufacturing, Product Unit responsible, General Manager of PCB Manufacturing Company, Vice President of Governmental, Political and Regulatory Affairs for Latin America, the Caribbean and Asia Pacific for L.M. ERICSSON TELECOM and Vice President of Defense and Early Alert Radar Systems.

For his wide and recognized international experience, Alberto Zetina Vélez is also acting as external advisor to some Telecommunications authorities of the Americas.