

Session 1.txt

Session 1:
ITU BDT activities in spectrum management and broadcasting

This presentation addresses the main functions of the ITU BDT and then its activities in the field of spectrum management and broadcasting. The responsibilities and actions of the TND unit (Telecommunication Technologies and Network Development) will be presented and participants can see some examples on the assistance provided for the developing countries.