

Short Biography

Dr. Miloud AMEZIANE

After finishing his studies as Engineer in Telecommunications in 1975, Dr. Miloud Ameziane has worked in the telecommunications field in Algeria during seven years, before leaving to France to prepare his PhD in Signal Processing; speciality: treatment of digital images (PhD was obtained in 1987).

During his stay in France, Dr. Miloud has been responsible for the Laboratory for treatment of digital images and knowledge of forms at Lille. He has published several international presentations.

After his return to Algeria in 1987, he continued to work in the telecommunications field and worked as a Lecturer at the University. He led several research teams and supervised many thesis of Master and PhD.

As International Expert, he joint ITU at the ITU Arab Regional Office in Cairo (Egypt) as Senior Advisor for the Arab States, since January 2000.

He has been designated as the Head of ITU Arab Regional Office since December 2008.