

Mr. GHommam Malek Mohsen is Chief Engineer, in the national Tunisian broadcasting operator, ONT.

He has 15 years experience in broadcasting/transmission field and has contributed enormously to the introduction of digital broadcasting in Tunisia from the pilot project in 2001, planning DVB-T and T-DAB services in the preparatory and final activities of the Geneva conference RRC-06. He also has been involved in the implementation of the Tunisian digital distribution SDH network and have finalized the study of the implementation of National Digital Terrestrial Television network in Tunisia which will be operational between the end of 2009 and 2010.