

Biodata for Vijay Mauree

Vijay Mauree, Programme Co-ordinator, Policy and Technology Watch Division, TSB, ITU

Vijay received his first degree in Computer Science with Electronic Engineering from University College London, UK in 1992 and obtained his Masters degree in Information Technology from Imperial College, Science and Technology, UK in 1993. In 2000, He obtained his MBA from Cranfield School of Management in UK.

Before joining ITU, Vijay was working for the National Computer Board in Mauritius where he was in charge of the Planning, Research and Development Division and had worked on the implementation of two National ICT Strategic Plans as well as on the development of a national information security strategy. He was also responsible for the setting up of the Government Data Centre and the national Computer Emergency Response Team.

In June 2010 he joined the ITU-T Policy and Technology Watch Division in Geneva where he is responsible for the implementation of projects under Bridging the Standardization Gap programme and undertaking research for production of Technology Watch reports. He just finished publishing one ITU-T Technology Watch report entitled "ICT as an enabler for smart water management".