

Report1: «Trends in ICTs development »

Trends in qualitative and quantitative telecommunications evolution. Migration to digital technologies and digital switching systems. convergence of telecommunications, broadcasting and information technologies. Creation of multiservice networks, migration to NGN. International standardization and unification of technical solutions.