

Bio

A specialist in the field of international telecoms and aviation, Yulia Koulikova is a law graduate of McGill University and Pantheon- Sorbonne with a solid experience dealing with national telecoms regulations in geographical Europe. Yulia worked at OnAir, the first provider of the connectivity on the aircraft before joining Inmarsat in 2011 for the development of the Global Xpress programme.