

Roland Belfin
Broadcasting & Telecom Regulatory Authority, Austria

Education:

Engineer Electronics

PhD (Economy & Business Administration) at the Vienna University of Economics and Business Administration, Thesis written on "Calculation of interconnection costs for SMP operators"

Experience:

2 years with the Austrian NRA: calculation of interconnection costs and costs of universal service further 2 years with the Austrian NRA (Austrian Broadcasting & Telecom Regulatory Authority) as Assistant of the Director General dealing with international affairs, business planning, telecom regulation in general

Projects and speeches regarding Central and Eastern European Countries:

- Presentation concerning Interconnection at Subregional Seminar on "Universal Service, Interconnection and Rural Telecommunications", Prague, Czech Republic, 24 - 27 April 2001

- Presentation concerning NRA Structure & Responsibility, within Twinning CMT (Spanish Regulator) - Czech Regulator, 30 November 2001, Prague, Czech Republic

- Presentation concerning Telecommunication Regulation, at Seminar Privatization and Liberalisation of Industries, Joint Vienna Institute, Vienna Austria, December 2001

- ITU Mission: Development of Interconnection Price Regulation for Albania, 2 - 8 December 2001

- Workshop concerning Business Planning and NRA Organisation, within Twinning Light RegTP and Slovenian NRA, 14.- 18. January 2002, Ljubjana, Slovenia