

Kasper Nyrup Madsen

National Telecom Agency, Denmark

Kasper Nyrup Madsen has five years of experience working with regulation of universal service and consumer protection for the Danish regulator where he serves as senior advisor. He is a master of law from University of Copenhagen.

Among the tasks he has carried out is a complete redraft of the Danish law on universal service and also drafting of secondary legislation on universal service. He has conducted the drafting of reports analysing the liberalised Danish telecom market with a view to consider possible changes in the regulation. Furthermore he has practical experience with the administration of the Danish universal service scheme.

Apart from experience with regulation of universal service on the national level Kasper Nyrup Madsen has been heavily involved in the EU 1999-review. He has served as expert on USO to the Danish delegation in the Council negotiations on the new USO directive.
