

Bart Schaap

Ministry of Transport, Public Works and Water Management of the Netherlands; Directorate-General for Telecommunications and Post

Present position:

Detached as a Pre Accession advisor to the PHARE project “Telecommunications, Regulatory Framework and Reform”, a twinning project between the Ministry of Transport, Public Works and Water Management of the Netherlands and the Ministry of Transport, Post and Telecommunications of the Slovak Republic, financed by PHARE of the EC. The overall purpose of the twinning project is the reinforcement of the institutional and administrative capacity of the Telecom Office of the Slovak Republic as a National Regulatory Authority (NRA) and support of the Ministry of Transport, Post and Telecommunication of the Slovak Republic in its legislation framework in preparation of the accession.

In the Netherlands working as a co-ordinating policy(-making) official concerning the State shareholdership in the National Telecom Company (KPN) and the privatisation of the nation wide broadcast transmission company (Nozema). From 1989 – 1997 working as a financial policy official for the Media Office of the Netherlands.