Ms. Alda Deo-Gratias Allaba (Alumni of Youth Forum Africa 2004) is currently studying her Master degree in Politics Science and Law at University of Abomey-Calavi, Benin.

She got the chance to know about ITU-Telecom Youth Forum from her university when she was the Assistant Director of her university association called “Group Entrepreneuriat (GE)”, whose objectives were to promote the ICTs. Ms. Alda Deo-Gratias Allaba’s active involvement in activities of ICTs in her university made her win the participation in Youth Forum Africa 2004.

During the Forum, Ms. Alda Deo-Gratias Allaba was particularly impressed by the enormous interest and passion expressed by African youth, who were ready to accept any challenges to promote the development of ICTs in Africa. Her participation enabled her to realize the role of the youth in the process of Africa's development. Therefore, she takes active action in communication with other young people to share the ideas and currently is working on projects that target on helping Africa to get out of underdevelopment.
