Mr. Alain Ndikumana (Alumni of Youth Forum Africa 2004) is currently studying Economic Science and Management at University of Burundi. He learnt about ITU-Telecom Youth Forum from the Ministry of Transport, Posts and Telecommunication in his country.

Mr. Alain Ndikumana realized it was a big chance to communicate with the youth from other countries and hence found the gap in the ICTs of his country. After selection, he got the opportunity to participate in Youth Forum Africa 2004, which had a huge impact on him. Coming back to his home country, together with other young people, he created an association for the promotion of ICTs. ITU-Telecom Youth Forum enriched him with a lot of experience regarding ICTs field so that he wishes more young people can also benefit from it.
