

Profile

Name: Aieshath Adnan

Age: 21

Sex: Female

Year of participation: Youth Forum Asia 2004

Country of origin: Maldives

Profession: ICT Tutor, Focus Education Center, Maldives

Ms. Aieshath Adnan (Alumni of Youth Forum Asia 2004) is currently working as an ICT tutor in Focus Education Centre, which is a training institute in the Maldives.

She first read about ITU-Telecom Youth Forum in a newspaper. At that time, she just started to work with some projects, therefore she was looking for an opportunity from which she could get further enhancement in the ICT field.

Ms. Aieshath Adnan got the opportunity to participate in Youth Forum Asia 2004. The most exciting part of the Forum for her was working with the draft committee for the final Declaration and Action Plan as a statement coming from all young participants to this event. She really appreciated the personal attention they received during the sessions.

Ms. Aieshath Adnan's participation changed the way that she dealt with her work as well as her personal life. Due to the experience gained during the Forum, she can manage to better plan, develop and achieve the goals of her work now.

