Ms. Lizzy Azuara Herrera (Alumni of Youth Forum World 2003) is currently working at Javier Lozano & Asociados as a consultant in telecommunications. They are doing various projects for companies, who wish to enter this sector.

In 2002, Ms. Lizzy Azuara Herrera was working in the Federal Commission of Telecommunications, a regulatory body of telecommunications in her country, from where she learnt about ITU-Telecom Youth Forum. This Forum interested her so much since she believed that it was also young people's responsibility to develop the information society. She considered that Youth Forum provided the youth with a unique chance to find new solutions through cooperation. For this reason, she applied for it. Passing through the selection process, Ms. Lizzy Azuara Herrera was honored a place to represent her country to participate in Youth Forum World 2003.

During the Forum, Ms. Lizzy Azuara Herrera had the opportunity to meet young people from all over the world, which enabled her to make friends with them. Through this way, she learned new cultures and different needs. Furthermore, due to her participation, Ms. Lizzy Azuara Herrera got the chance to work with two projects at the moment: one is a proposal, raised by some of the Latin American Alumnae in Youth Forum 2003, to contribute to the second phase of World Summit of Information Society; the other is a paper that 12 young people including her from different parts of the world present to all institutes and nations, targeting at the participation and input into a research program “Human Development, Regional Conflicts and Global Governance”.

Evidently, the Forum influenced Ms. Lizzy Azuara Herrera’s professional life to a great extent. “I consider both Youth Forum and the Website of the Alumnae of the all ITU-Youth Forums were fantastic ideas.” Said Ms. Lizzy Azuara Herrera, “They offer us an opportunity to come up with our own opinions and provide us with a chance to share our thoughts during the Forum and afterwards.”
