

Profile

Name: Anvar Nigmatov

Age: 24

Sex: Male

Year of participation: Youth Forum Asia 2004

Country of origin: Uzbekistan

Profession: Student

Mr. Anvar Nigmatov (Alumni of Youth Forum Asia 2004) has graduated from Tashkent University of Information Technologies, Uzbekistan and is currently taking language course of French in Switzerland.

He learnt about ITU-Telecom Youth Forum from his university, when he was studying there. With the strong will to put efforts in narrowing Digital Divide and to meet other youth with interest in contributing to the information society, Mr. Anvar Nigmatov applied for and was selected to represent his country in the Youth Forum Asia 2004.

That special activity motivated him to go further in telecommunication sector and particularly led him to ICTs field. After the Forum, he organized several seminars on the topics of ICT/Digital Divide and ITU-Telecom Youth Forum, which attracted a lot of interest from many participants. These all strengthened Mr. Anvar Nigmatov's mind to share his knowledge of ICTs with other young people from his country.

Mr. Anvar Nigmatov believes that the young people should also take the responsibility to decrease the Digital Divide and contribute to the development of ICTs.