

WORKING GROUP ON THE
INTERNATIONAL TELECOMMUNICATION REGULATIONS

GENEVA — SECOND MEETING — 6 – 7 DECEMBER, 2004

Chairman, Sub-Group 3

Compilation of New issues (Derived from Questionnaire responses and contributions)

a) Suggestion for additional provisions in ITRs

Spam	Egypt (including definition) Syria Jordan Kuwait Peru
Settlement of disputes	Egypt Syria Jordan Ecuador
Misuse of numbering	Egypt Tanzania (text in document ITR/008) Syria
Quality of Service	China Peru Ecuador
Information security	Egypt China
Prohibitions on alternative calling arrangements	Egypt China Kuwait
Internet governance	Egypt China
New accounting rate methods	Egypt China Kuwait Cuba (definition)
IP telephony	Egypt Kuwait Thailand
International mobile roaming	Thailand Kuwait China

International mobile satellite service	Thailand
Internet intellectual property; access to adult content	Peru
Universal service	Ecuador
Calling number transmitting service	China
Security of signaling and traffic information; billing information; control and security of data; managing synchronization of call count	Kuwait
Use of international networks	Ecuador

b) Suggestions for Recommendations

c) Suggestions not proposing additional provisions in ITRs

Misuse of numbering	Austria, Bulgaria, Czech Republic, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Italy, Latvia, Lithuania, Malta, The Netherlands, New Zealand, Poland, Portugal, Slovak Republic, Spain, Sweden, Thailand, United Kingdom, United States.
Generally opposing the expanded use of ITRs and/or preferring the use of Regulations	- See “misuse of numbering” entries except Thailand, - See also ITR/012, 2.3 (22 countries)
