

ITU-T IPv6 Workshop

CV

Geneva, 22-23 June 2005

Ulf Dahlsten
Director of 'Emerging Technologies and Infrastructures'
European Commission, Directorate-General 'Information Society and Media'

Session Chair: 1.4: Ipv6 Resource Management

Since 2004	Director of 'Emerging Technologies and Infrastructures' European Commission, Directorate-General 'Information Society and Media'
2001 - 2004	Director of SECCOM AG, Brussels
1999 - 2001	President and CEO of Icon Medialab International, Brussels
1994 - 1999	President and CEO of Posten AB, Stockholm
1988 - 1994	Director General of the Swedish Postal Services, Stockholm
1986 - 1988	State Secretary of Communications, Stockholm
1985 - 1986	State Secretary and Chief of Cabinet, Prime Minister's Office, Stockholm
1984 - 1985	Chief of Cabinet, Prime Minister's Office, Stockholm
1982 - 1984	State Secretary for Energy, Stockholm
1977 - 1982	City Manager of Sodertalje, Sweden
1976 - 1977	Head of Department, Consumer Goods and Services, the National Price and Cartel Office, Stockholm
1974 - 1976	Head of Division, Food and Agriculture, the National Price and Cartel Office, Stockholm
1971 - 1974	Head of the Office of the Governor of Stockholm

1970-1971 Advisor to the Mayor of Stockholm

1969 - 1970 Teacher in Mathematics, Royal Institute of Technology, Stockholm

SHORT BIOGRAPHY OF ULF DAHLSTEN

Mr. Dahlsten, born in 1946 and of Swedish nationality, has recently joined the European Commission as Director of “Emerging Technologies and Infrastructures” at the Directorate-General Information Society and Media.

Prior to joining the Commission, Ulf Dahlsten was Director of SECCOM AG and President and CEO of Icon Medialab International, an internet consultancy offering solutions in *e*commerce, *e*business and internet banking among others.

Previously, from 1988 to 1999, Ulf Dahlsten worked with the Swedish Postal Services, first as Director-General and then as President and CEO of Posten AB. His transformation of a monopoly-protected authority into a profitable customer and business oriented company earned him the ‘European Hermes Award’.

From 1982 to 1988, Mr. Dahlsten occupied various posts with the Swedish government, including State Secretary for Energy and then for Communications as well as State Secretary and Chief of Cabinet of the Prime Minister’s Office.

From 1977 to 1982, he was City Manager of Sodertalje. Prior to that, from 1974 to 1977, he worked for the National Price and Cartel Office as Head of the Food and Agriculture Division and then as Head of Department for Consumer Goods and Services.

Before that, he was Advisor to the Mayor of Stockholm from 1970 to 1971 and Head of the Office of the Governor of Stockholm from 1971 to 1974.

Ulf Dahlsten started his career as a teacher in Mathematics at the Royal Institute of Technology. He holds a Civil Engineer’s degree from the Royal Institute of Technology and a Bachelor of Science in Economics from the Stockholm School of Economics.