

Ms. Monica Duhem

Monica Duhem, joined in 2023 the Global Alliance for Inclusive ICTs - G3ict as the Director of the Global Advocacy Center. G3ict is a nonprofit advocacy organization launched to promote the ICT accessibility provisions of the CRPD. Monica lead the G3ict projects supporting countries in the development of public policies for digital inclusion of vulnerable groups as well as training OPD's and private companies.

Prior to her involvement with G3ict Monica was a digital inclusion consultant for the ITU-UN where she led training projects in Africa, Asia and Latin America. Monica has a Phd in Social and Political Science from the Iberoamerican University and a Msc in Economics and Philosophy from the London School of Economics.