

Ms. Mehtap Dufour

Mehtap Dufour is a senior satellite communication engineer, acting head, of Satellite Systems Coordination Division of Space Services Department of Radiocommunication Bureau of International Telecommunication Union (ITU). She has electrical and electronics engineering background and currently she is responsible from international coordination procedures of geostationary and non-geostationary satellite systems and earth stations' technical and regulatory examination of frequency assignment notices submitted by ITU Member States.

Mehtap has over 25 years of experience in all aspects of Satellite Communications Operations International regulations and related software for technical examination. Ms. Dufour has represented Space Service Department at different World or Regional Radiocommunication Conferences like RRS-Americas, RRS-Arab States, UNOSA, CITEL, ATU, Caribbean SMTF, H-SPACE, ITSO-ITU and very recently WRC-23, also special assistance given to different member states for technical and regulatory examination procedures of their satellite network projects.