

Myeongja Yang

Myeongja Yang, Researcher, Korea Communications Agency, is a BA of Media and a MA and Doctor of Telecommunications.

Starting her career as a researcher in Korea Telecom, she held various directorial positions in the areas of policy development, business plan, pricing & product strategy, network investment, etc. After 25 years in KT, she joined Korea Communications Agency in 2021 and has been developing and implementing public policies and projects in the fields of digital transformation, digital disruption, and climate change. She is currently working on planning and budgeting several green digital projects such as energy efficiency and E-Waste management of digital infrastructure, including data center and telecommunications network.