João Alexandre Zanon

Advisor at ANATEL, Vice-Chair of ITU-T SG 11 and Chair of WP 4/11

Mr Joao Zanon is a telecommunication engineer that works at ANATEL´s Regulatory Division, which is responsible for the development of regulatory policies regarding telecommunications services in Brazil. Currently, he led key projects such as the national initiative on the combat of counterfeit and stolen ICT devices and other mobile telecommunication related initiatives. Mr. Zanon actively contributes on international forums, such as ITU, REGULATE and CITEL Permanent Consultative Committee I – PCC.I (responsible for telecommunication/ICT discussion). At World Telecommunication Standardization Assembly (WTSA-20) he was appointed as Vice-Chairman of ITU-T SG11 and currently is the Chairman of WP4/11 "Combating counterfeit telecommunication/ICT devices/software and mobile device theft".