

Erkan Erdil

Prof. Dr. Erkan Erdil, Department of Economics and Science and Technology Policies
Research Center (METU-TEKPOL), Middle East Technical University

Erkan Erdil (Ankara, 1968) studied Political Science and Public Administration at METU in Ankara. He received Bachelor of Science degree in 1990. He received Ph.D. in 2001 from University of Maastricht. He is serving at METU since 1992. He was the director of Science and Technology Policies Research Center (METU-TEKPOL) between 2002-2017. He was also the board member of GLOBELICS (The global network for the economics of learning, innovation, and competence building systems) and ISS (International Schumpeter Society).

http://stps.metu.edu.tr/en/system/files/resume_erdil.pdf