

Borhene Chakroun

Director of Policies and Lifelong Learning Systems Division, UNESCO

Borhene Chakroun has worked as a trainer, chief trainer, project manager and consultant for organizations such as the European Union and the World Bank before joining the European Training Foundation in 2001 where he was the Senior Human Capital Development specialist. He is now Director of Policies and Lifelong Learning Systems Division at UNESCO-HQ, where much of his recent work has focused on global trends in reforming education and training systems and on developing the global agenda for skills development in the context of the 2030 Sustainable Development Agenda. He is also the coordinator of the Global Education Coalition launched by UNESCO to respond to the COVID-19 crisis. He has authored and co-authored various articles and books in the field of skills development and lifelong learning.