SHARM EL-SHEIKH 2019

28 October - 29 November 2019
Sharm El-Sheikh, Egypt

WRC-19

- ❑ WRCs used to be held in Geneva, Switzerland due to its massive participation and long duration as well as number of participants.
- ❑ Egypt is currently looking for becoming a global hub for conferences, we hosted the Global Symposium for Regulators (GSR-16) with a great success, which encourage us to host one of the International Telecommunication Union's big events.
- ❑ WRC-19 will be hosted in Sharm el Sheikh since it is the most suitable for accommodating this conference due to:
  - Large conference hall, and meeting rooms
  - Easiness of security issues holding social events
  - Availability variable hotels
  - Suitable places for

❑ For accommodating this conference many rooms are required due to the existence of many parallel meetings.

For these requirements an extension to the venue have been constructed and ready to accommodate WRC-19

Sharm El Sheikh International Convention Centers

- ❑ The newly renovated International Convention Center in Sharm El Sheikh marks itself as one of the largest convention centers in the region.
- ❑ The Center offers over 30 meeting rooms and designated areas with different participant capacities.
- ❑ It boasts state-of-the art IT infrastructure complemented with top notch equipment aspiring to lead hosted events into success with professionalism and ease.
- ❑ In addition to “The Capital” and “The Summit” rooms with a huge capacity of more than 3500 and 900 participants respectively, the Center comprises a variety of differently-capacitated meeting rooms ranging from 100-500 participants.

- ❑ This will avoid time wasted in customizing oversized and undersized meeting rooms to fit small and large meetings requirements.
- ❑ Such features stipulate the new Sharm El Sheikh Convention Center as one of the most advanced conferencing facilities around the world, thus it will be the most suitable to host major ITU events such as the World Radio Conference.
