A l'attention de la Direction générale

Lettre circulaire N° 23/10

Sujet: Avis de vacance N° 1120-2023/SG-SPM/EXTERNAL/D2, "Chef du Département de la planification stratégique et des relations avec les membres"

Madame, Monsieur,

L'emploi décrit en annexe doit être pourvu au siège de l'UIT.

La description d'emploi correspondante, les aptitudes requises des candidats, ainsi que toutes indications utiles, figurent en annexe à la présente lettre.

Les Administrations sont priées de diffuser les avis de vacance à toutes les sources potentielles de recrutement : universités, instituts, associations d'ingénieurs et le secteur privé selon le cas.

Je serais reconnaissant à votre Administration de bien vouloir inciter les candidats et notamment les candidates qualifié(e)s à soumettre leur candidature pour l'emploi mentionné ci-dessus, au plus tard le 19/06/2023 sur notre site carrière :

La Conférence de plénipotentiaires a adopté la Résolution 48 (Rev. Dubaï 2018), décidant que :
« ... lorsque des emplois vacants sont pourvus par recrutement international, lors du choix entre plusieurs candidats ayant les qualifications requises pour l'emploi, la préférence doit être donnée aux candidats des régions du monde qui sont sous-représentées dans les effectifs de l'Union, compte tenu de l'équilibre entre le personnel féminin et le personnel masculin prescrit dans le régime commun des Nations Unies ; ».

Veillez agréer, Madame, Monsieur, l'assurance de ma haute considération.

Doreen Bogdan-Martin
Secrétaire générale

ORGANIZATIONAL UNIT

The General Secretariat directs administrative, human and financial resources and activities of the Union, including the implementation of the provisions of the administrative regulations on operational questions, the dissemination of information on telecommunication/ICT matters for operational and other purposes, and the provision of legal advice to the whole of the Union. The General Secretariat coordinates the implementation of the Strategic Plan, monitors the telecommunication/ICT environment and recommends as needed action relating to the Union's future policies and strategy. The General Secretariat ensures inter-sectoral coordination and cooperation to advance a whole of ITU approach (One-ITU) in headquarters and the field. The General Secretariat provides logistical and information technology support to the Union's activities including conferences and global forums; the coordination of the work of the Union with the United Nations system, and other international organizations; and the engagement of the Member States, Sector Members, and Academia. The General Secretariat manages corporate governance, and strategic communications and relations with the media, different stakeholder groups as well as the general public.

Within the General Secretariat, the Strategic Planning and Membership Department (SPM) advises the Secretary-General on strategic challenges and their implications for the Union in the fast evolving telecommunications/ICT environment; develops forward-looking strategic proposals to the ITU management team with a view to ensuring that the organization meets the objectives assigned by the membership; plans and coordinates the corporate and strategic activities with a view to ensuring their accordance with membership objectives; organizes and provides secretariat services to the Plenipotentiary Conference, Council, and other meetings in the general secretariat in order to achieve a high level of involvement from Member States and Sector Members, develops and maintains sound relations with Member States, Sector Members and other entities, the UN and other international organizations. The Department is also responsible for providing expert advice on communication and promotion strategies and for developing and implementing the Union's corporate communication plan in cooperation with the three Sectors with a view to promoting ITU leadership in the field of telecommunications and ICT.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Under the direction of the Secretary-General, and in close collaboration with the Deputy Secretary-General, the Chief Strategic Planning and Membership Department is responsible for providing strategic direction and management in accordance with ITU standards of efficiency, accountability and integrity, and coordination of strategic planning, programme monitoring, partnership development and resource mobilization. By providing leadership and high-level guidance and support for the development and implementation of effective and innovative multistakeholder partnerships and resource mobilization efforts, the Chief of Department plays a primary role in ensuring ITU's continued capacity to deliver its mandate and support the strategic objectives. Chief of Department acts as driver for change by leading and supporting ITU's initiatives. The incumbent performs the following duties:

- Analyzes on a continuous basis developments and trends in digital technologies, telecommunications/ICT environment in the context of the global information economy and society and assesses their challenges and implications for the ITU; promotes cutting-edge and innovative approaches; oversees the development of forward-looking strategic options, proposals and plans relating to the purposes of the Union in a changing environment (including through improved strategic foresight).
- In close collaboration with the Deputy Secretary-General, fosters, promotes and advocates intersectoral work/coordination, including planning and directing activities of the Union such as the World Telecommunication Policy Forum, the World Telecom and Information Society Day celebrations and related events; contributes to the development of plans for the implementation of the results of WSIS; and directs the development plans for promoting youth and gender-related strategies and activities.
- In close collaboration with the Deputy Secretary-General, provides intellectual and strategic leadership and oversight in the elaboration, implementation, monitoring and reporting of the Organization's overall strategy and programme, results framework, including the thematic, priorities, the enablers, the outcomes and outputs and the development of the related impact and performance indicators, ensuring compliance with the guidance provided by the Governing Bodies, and coordinating the development of strategic approaches for a variety of programme issues, in line with ITU's global objectives and strategic directions.
- Oversees the development and management of the ITU's sound relations with Member States and specialized agencies and other international organizations, with regional and sub-regional telecommunications organizations, satellite organizations, with non-governmental international organizations and academic institutions.
- Directs the preparation of quality reports and publications entrusted by the ITU's competent authorities. Ensures overall coherence of operations.
- Oversees and directs the ITU's corporate communication programme, promoting its leadership role in the international community; provides expert advice to the Secretary General and senior managers on all questions relating to communication strategies, image, and opportunities.
- Plans, directs and implements the strategies, platforms and measures required to establish ITU as a thought leader and for ITU's thought leadership delivery including establishing working relationships with experts and top academics in specific fields of technology to jointly produce discussion/research papers for publication and dissemination; working with the diplomatic community to promote better understanding of technologies and their impact so as to better prepare them for discussions at ITU meetings and conferences; develops national strategies for the rollout of these technologies; and establish experiential learning for ITU staff.
- Strengthens support to UN system inter-agency activities at global, regional, and national levels, including representing ITU in relevant bodies and committees.
- Oversees Secretariat to the Council, Plenipotentiary, and other conferences of the Union; supports the Secretary-General in designing and organizing senior management retreats and similar strategic planning meetings of the senior leadership.
- Provides strategic oversight to the Broadband Commission for Sustainable Development (BBCOM) and performs all duties required as the Executive Director of the BBCOM in support of the secretariat.
- Upon the request of the Secretary-General, represents the ITU at national, regional, and international level.
- Assists the Secretary-General and Deputy Secretary-General in dealing with strategic issues of the entire ITU.
- Carries out other duties that may be assigned by the Secretary-General or the Deputy Secretary-General.
