

The Norway Perspective

One Patient – One Journal

The new national eHealth strategy
Submitted to Ministry Evaluation

Norwegian Directorate of eHealth

A vehicle for driving eHealth adoption Created January 1st 2016

Be He@lthy Be Mobile Norway

National program for personal connected health

One Patient – One Journal

One common, national solution for clinical documentation, workflow support and patient administration

Destination and Direction of Development

One common, national solution for Municipal Health and Care Starting Point for Direction of Development with active participation from specialist health

One common, national solution provides Specialist Health with Substantial Guidance on Strategy and Development activities

Direction of development require

National Governance
that provide clear guidance for ICTdevelopment in the sector

Directorate of eHealth

New government agency established January 1st 2016
Upgrade of IT in Health

Two roles

Government
National governance and coordination
Catalyst and driver

National eHealth solutions
Citizens, health providers, data

Be He@lthy Be Mobile Norway

Following up patients with chronic diseases from a distance and reducing early deaths from non communicable diseases

National funding

Selected municipal projects

Scaling up and out

Patient empowerment and quality of life

Reduction in use of health care resources

Commercially available solutions

Number of patients

Tecnology

Organizations

Patient groups