

Agenda

Stakeholder Workshop

Theme: Co-creating Sustainable Operating Models for Connected Schools in Kenya

Date: 22 March 2023 | 9:00am – 16:30pm

Place: Strathmore University

Website: <http://www.itu.int/go/2023-expert-workshop-kenya>

08:30	Arrival at Strathmore University
09:00 – 09:30	Welcome, introductions and agenda setting <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Overview of the research work on sustainable connectivity solutions for schools in Kenya and why this meeting.
9:30 – 10:30	Consultations and co-creation of sustainable approaches for school connectivity (a roundtable discussion on the following topics) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Sustainability lessons learned from implementing school connectivity projects in Kenya. Existing and potential sustainable operating models for school connectivity in Kenya Key variables for successful implementation of sustainable connectivity models Discussion around which business models are best suited for different scenarios. Potential returns of implementing various business models.
Coffee Break (10:30 – 11:00)
11:00 – 12:00	Consultations and co-creation of sustainable approaches for school connectivity (a roundtable discussion on the following topics)
12:00 – 13:00	Plenary presentations, discussions, and way forward
Lunch break (13:00 – 14:00)
14:00 – 14:45	Continuation of plenary presentations, discussions, and way forward
14:45 – 15:30	Presentation of preliminary results and analysis from data gathering of the ongoing study on co-creation of sustainable models for school connectivity in Kenya, and how the findings align with earlier discussions <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Q&A session
15:30 – 16:00	Review of key insights and lessons learned from school connectivity projects in order to make more informed decisions in the future <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Next steps for the development and implementation of sustainable operating models for school connectivity in Kenya. Concluding remarks
Wrap up and departure at leisure	