Korean projects on spectrum management

Mr Jongho Kim
Senior Engineer/ Mr. Isvan Bozsoki
BDT/IEE/TND

Spectrum Management Assistance Projects

- ❑ SMS4DC

  - Affordable Spectrum Management Software for Developing Countries

  - Continuous S/W Upgrade and Training for Users

  - Users' meeting for feedback and promotion

- ❑ Basic Spectrum Management Assistance

  - Assistance to establish basic framework of spectrum management system

- ❑ Spectrum Management Assistance Workshop

Spectrum Management Tool (SMS4DC)

❑ A computer program to assist the developing countries
  • On technical and regulatory procedures for managing spectrum
  • A software package on CD containing a digital terrain map
❑ More than 40 Countries adapted
  • Made available in 2007, current version is 5.1
  • English, French and Spanish versions are available

V 5.0   V 4.1   V 4.0

Basic Spectrum Management Assistance

❑ Assistance to set up basic framework of national spectrum management system

- Analysis current framework for national spectrum management

- Provide legal, administrative and technological aspect recommendations

- Training session to implement the recommendations

❑ The progress of assistance project

- Comoros – final report and recommendation were submitted

- Bolivia – 1st mission was completed and draft report was submitted

- Kyrgystan – two experts(economics and technology) for analysis of current framework and provide proposals

Spectrum Management Assistance Workshop

❑ Regional workshop for spectrum management

- Acquire recent radio communication technology and policy trend
- Share the know-how of spectrum management under limited resources
- Discuss and find solution for regional common issues on spectrum management

❑ The schedule of workshop

- Africa region : 23 – 24 Accra Ghana
- America region : mid of September in Argentina
- Asia region : the first quarter in 2019, Vietnam