

América Accesible IV: TIC para TODOS
Accessible Americas IV: ICTs for ALL
San José, Costa Rica, 21-23/11/2017

Sesión/Session	(Título de la Sesión/Session Title) Sesión/Session 4 (21/11/2017) Avances Recientes de la Región Américas en Materia de Accesibilidad de las TIC Recent Developments on ICT Accessibility in the Americas Region <hr/> Título de la ponencia/Title of presentation El Índice DARE 2017 de G3ict - Resultados Preliminares The G3ict DARE Index 2017 - Preliminary Results
(Foto/Photo) 	(Nombre/Name): Francesca Cesa Bianchi (Puesto/Title): Vice Presidenta, Relaciones Institucionales/Vice President, Institutional Relations (Institución/Institution): G3ict <hr/> (Breve Biografía/Short Bio) Francesca Cesa Bianchi is the Vice President for Institutional Relations at G3ict, the Global Initiative for Inclusive Technologies, a digital accessibility advocacy Initiative launched in December 2006 in cooperation with the Secretariat for the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities at UN DESA. (www.g3ict.org). She has an in-depth experience of digital inclusion issues for persons with disabilities, having worked with the organization since its inception. She oversees G3ict's cooperation programs and institutional relations with the United Nations, international advocacy organizations, governments, and academia. Ms. Cesa Bianchi has previously served as a freelance writer for CNN, as well as an accredited election observer for the Carter Center's Americas Program. A native of Milan, Italy, she holds a master's degree in Communication and Media Studies from Georgia State University and is a graduate in Political Science from the Università degli Studi of Milan, Italy.