

Alexa Torres
Digital accessibility consultant

Graduated from the University of Costa Rica in the careers of Spanish and Literature, and Spanish Philology. Digital accessibility consultant at the Computer Center of the University of Costa Rica and in private companies, such as Plura. Trainer in the field of inclusion of people with disabilities, inclusive communication and accessible social networks. Human Rights secretary at the Student Federation of the University of Costa Rica.