

Maryleana Mendez, General Secretary, ASIET

Maryleana Mendez studied Computer Science at the University of Costa Rica, obtained a Master's Degree in Information Technology Management from the Monterrey Institute of Technology and Higher Studies and High Management studies at Instituto Centroamericano de Administración de Empresas INCAE.. From 2009 to 2017, she served as member of the board of the Council of the Superintendence of Telecommunications of Costa Rica, being president of this Council for 3 years. During this period she led, organized and supervised the process of opening the telecommunications market. Prior to this position she worked for six years directly in the telecommunications industry as project manager in Latin America for BT, deploying value-added networks and services throughout the region. Previously, she held prominent positions in different public and private organizations in Costa Rica. She is currently Executive Secretary a.i in the Asociación Interamericana de Empresas de Telecomunicaciones ASIET"