Eng. Mohamed Elnour Abdelhafez, IPv6 expert at NLTVC Education SDN BHD.

He worked as a Network and Security Engineer, a System Administrator, an Infrastructure Engineer, a Project manager, and a Trainer throughout his time in the ICT industry, and Academia/research, was in charge of developing and coaching courses in network/information security, IPv6, IoT, and DNS during his career. Led a number of projects to implement security systems and standards in network operators and other relevant organizations that included RPKI, IPv6 deployment, and DNSSEC experimental pilot for (.SD), beside conducted a number of published researches on TLS 1.3 performance and security. held a position as an IPv6 expert in one of ITU expertise centres in Malaysia and also involved in the global IPv6 forum education logo programme. Currently, he is accomplishing his Ph.D. at the Malaysia University of Science and Technology.