

Ebrahim Al Haddad ,Regional Director, ITU Arab Regional Office

- Mr. Ebrahim Al Haddad comes with an experience in the telecom field that stretches over 25 years in the international arena as well as the private sector.
- In 2002, Ebrahim joined the ITU and spent six and a half years between the headquarters in Geneva and the regional office in Cairo where he was the regional director.
- In July 2008, Ebrahim joined a telecom consultancy group that provided consultancy services to governments, regulators and private sector entities in the Arab region. He rejoined the ITU as the regional director of the Arab office in October 2011.
- Ebrahim holds a Master's degree in Information Analysis and Management from Bond University in Australia.