

Eng. Aryg Mohammed Ahmed Abdalla - Planning and International Relations (NTC)

- Eng. Aryg Graduated from Sudan University of Science and technology, Electronics Engineering Department with major in telecommunications in 2008, after that she Selected to educate students on the field of communications and Worked as teaching assistant in the same college for two years. She is also a certified Engineer at Sudanese Engineering Society.
- Eng. Aryg is working now at the National Telecommunications Corporation (NTC), the telecom regulatory authority of telecommunications and post of Sudan, she has an extensive experience and management skills of 7 -year in the field.
- She has a profound interest in all matters related to enabling women in ICT and the new trends in ICT Field.