

Mr. Mohammed A. Alam, Dean of the ITC and Supervisor of Cyber Security Program at Naif Arab University of Security Sciences

- Mr. Mohammed Alam is a PhD holder from the University of Denver, USA in Curriculum leadership.
- Senior executive leadership with a wide range of experience in IT industry, combining government services, roles and consulting.
- Provide management consulting focused on projects, processes, people, and technology strategy and management.
- Highly collaborative, result-oriented senior leader with extensive large project, program, portfolio and PMO accomplishments with a proven history of managing large federal IT programs.
- Have managed cross-culture on-shore and off-shore teams sized 10-1500 + members.
- Able to capitalize of finance, information technology (IT), production, compliance and regulatory risk and process background to ensure operational and strategic success.
- Successfully implemented Quality Management Systems compliant to ISO 9001-2000 at Naif Arab University for Security Sciences (NAUSS).
- Published a "Guide to Information Security Standards, Policies Practices" for the Middle East Security Organizations.
- Developed and supervised the Organization of a Forensic Science College including Digital Forensic at NAUSS.
- Developed and supervised the Organization of Telecommunication College at the Ministry of Post, Telephone and Telegraph (MOPTT)
- Developed, Organized and Supervised the Information Security Project at NAUSS.