

Bio

Turhan Muluk joined Intel in 2006. He is representative of Intel at ITU-D Sector and working on telecommunication policies for Government and Policy Group in EMEA Region.

Before joining to Intel he worked 14 years for Turk Telekom on different wireless broadband projects. He also involved with ETSI, ITU, IEEE studies and worked as Vice Rapporteur at different ITU-D Questions. Turhan has also organized different joint activities together with ITU.

He was the chairman of WiMAX Forum for the Middle East and Africa. Turhan Muluk is graduated from Electrical and Electronics Engineering Department of the METU in Turkey and a member of IEEE.