

Brief profile Verengai Mabika – Senior Policy Advisor, Internet Society

Verengai Mabika is a technology and policy expert. He joined the Internet Society Global Policy team as Senior Policy Advisor for Africa in 2017. A serial entrepreneur he founded three organizations, in 2010: Development Reality Institute (DRI), a social innovation hub, in 2013, co-founded the Internet Society Chapter in Zimbabwe, in 2014, co-founded Golix, an African blockchain fintech start-up. Verengai supports the Internet Society's global policy work in Africa, including managing partnerships with African Union Commission, Africa Telecommunications Union, Regional Economic Communities (RECs), Regulators Associations and sub-Regional Internet Governance forums. He also leads the ISOC regional policy work related IoT Security, internet governance, internet infrastructure security, online privacy and community networks.