Mr Ananda Raj Khanal, Director at Nepal Telecommunications Authority

Ananda Raj Khanal, born in Nepal is currently Director at Nepal Telecommunications Authority (NTA), an independent and autonomous telecom regulator of Nepal. Before joining NTA in April 2006, he was with the Department of Electrical and Electronics Engineering at Kathmandu University in Nepal in the capacity of Assistant Professor and Department In-Charge. He continues to be a visiting faculty at different universities in Nepal and teaches subjects related to Telecommunications and ICTs.

He holds a Bachelor of Engineering degree in Electronics and Communications, Master of Engineering degree in Optical Communication. He is a gold medalist in Bachelors of Law (LLB).

Mr Khanal has taken a number of training courses related to policy, regulation and management of Telecommunications/ICTs conducted by different international institutes of repute including ITU, ACMA, PURC, APT, TEMIC, USTTI and other regulatory agencies. He has also participated in a number of seminars, workshops, meetings, symposia dealing with Telecommunications/ICTs/Broadband.

Very active in the ITU plenipotentiary conferences, WRCs ,WTDCs and ITU-D study groups, GSRs,WSIS and APT and SATRC activities, Mr Khanal is one of the noted speaker in these fields, has given a number of key note address and served as a panelist and moderator in a number of panel discussions in   and outside the country.

He is an elected Vice Chairman of ITU-D Study Group 2 for the period 2014-2018.He had served as the Vice Rapporteur for Study Group 2 during 2010-2014.He also served as SATRC consultant under APT in 2013-2014.

Besides Telecom and ICTs, he has deep interest in management and leadership. He studies philosophy, spiritualism and practices them. His hobbies include trekking, listening to music, reading , writing and public speaking.