

Short Bio Aamir Riaz

Mr. Aamir is as a Programme officer in International Telecommunication Union and is currently based in its Area Office for South East Asia in Indonesia. In-line with the Global Objectives of ITU and regional initiatives of Asia-Pacific region Mr. Aamir has been working on development of ICTs in the region through country specific actions, sub-regional and regional activities across the Asia and Pacific region. He has implemented initiatives and projects in partnership and collaboration with international/regional organizations e.g. ASEAN, Asia-Pacific Telecommunity (APT) and Administrations including, MSIP Korea and DoT Australia etc.

Mr. Aamir is currently involved in ITU development activities particularly on areas related to telecommunication policy, regulations and strategies and Spectrum related issues.

Prior to joining ITU in 2013, Mr. Aamir has been working in ictQatar from 2010 to 2013 as National Spectrum Manger. He was involved in implementing various regulatory and strategic planning initiatives From 2007 to 2010 he performed his duties as Assistant Director in Strategy and Development department of the Pakistan telecomm Authority.

Mr. Aamir is an Electrical Engineer from National University of Science and Technology (NUST) Pakistan and has advanced degree in Radio-communication from École Supérieure d'Électricité (SUPÉLEC) France.