

Ajarin Pattanapanchai

Deputy Secretary General, Office of the Board of Investment, Thailand

Ajarin Pattanapanchai has spent her career at Office of the Board of Investment (BOI) since 1984. During this period, she involved in many high profile projects development in petroleum & petrochemical sector, chemical sector, energy and alternative energy sector. She also involved in formulating investment promotion policy for many target sectors including policy to promote hi-tech industries such as aerospace, medical devices, biotechnology, and R&D in the country.

Her major positions include Director of Planning and Development Division, Director of Chemical Division, Director of Services and Public Utilities Division, Director of Management Information System Division, and lastly Senior Executives Investment Advisor. Currently, she is a Deputy Secretary General of BOI.

Education Background

1984 - Bachelor of Science in Industrial Engineering, Chulalongkorn University, Thailand

1987 - Master of Business Administration, Youngstown State University, Ohio U.S.A.