International ICT Volunteers (IIV)

ICT development and promotion

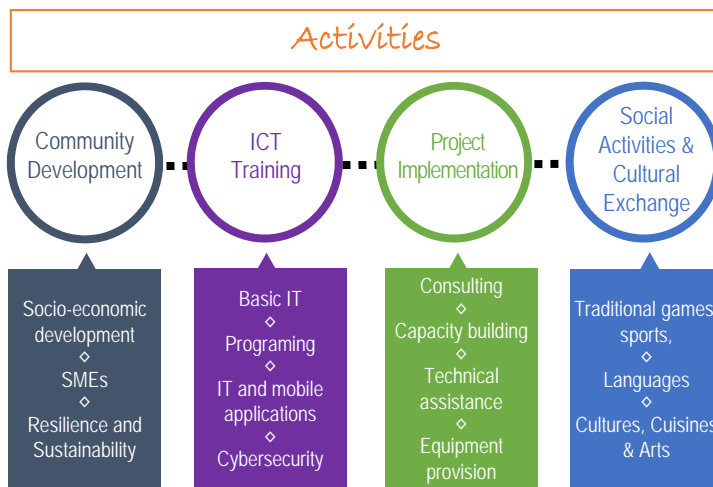

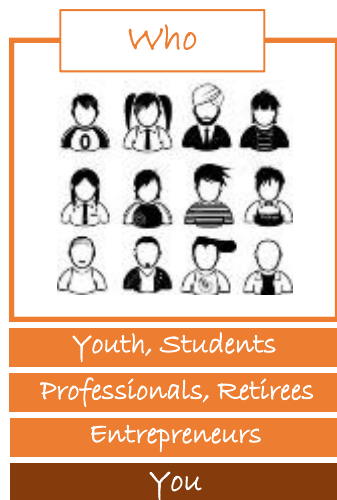

IIVs help promote digital societies and ICT literacy at all levels. They harness digital technologies to accelerate social and economic development.

People network

IIV is an internationally social network of volunteers from different backgrounds, different countries, different age groups but common desire for doing good deeds.

Platform of innovations

Bringing together various skills, knowledge, experiences, and spirits, We create a platform – the one that makes innovations and inspire people.
