

Mohammd Ashraful Alam
Senior Assistant Director
Bangladesh Telecommunication Regulatory Commission (BTRC)

Ashraf is a Senior Assistant Director of BTRC working with the Spectrum Division for the last 5 years. Currently he is posted at the Spectrum Monitoring Directorate of the Division. Previously he worked at the Spectrum Management Directorate of the same Division for 1 year. Prior to that he worked in a world bank financed project naming “ Strengthening the Regulatory Capacity of BTRC”, for about 4 years.

With these 09 years’ of experience in the telecom field, Ashraf’s current focus of work is on both spectrum management and monitoring including interference investigation, spectrum allocation, spectrum planning etc. Currently, he is also involves deeply with some projects e.g. up-gradation of BTRC’s existing monitoring system, IMEI-Database implementation and NEIR (National Equipment Identity Register) project.

Ashraf has a Bachelor degree in (EEE) Electrical and Electronic Engineering. He is also a student of MBA.